

PRIVATE EDUCATION IN CHINA

BBC, [online], [dostęp 28 grudnia 2015], dostępny w internecie:

<http://www.bbc.com/capital/story/20151221-the-chinese-turning-their-backs-on-the-state>

I Read the text and answer the following questions.

1. Why do many Chinese parents choose private education for their children?
2. Do all private schools provide full-time education?
3. In 2015 were there more private or state kindergartens?
4. What is the name of the Chinese secondary school leaving exam?
5. What subjects are taught at Aurora Academy International?
6. How much money are parents prepared to pay for private education?
7. What is the percentage of Chinese students studying in the USA?

II Match the words with definitions. There are two EXTRA definitions.

- | | |
|---------------------------|---|
| 1. pressure-cooker effect | a) to provide a particular group of people with the things they need |
| 2. enrol | b) to develop well and be successful |
| 3. flourish | c) the amount of money you have to pay for goods or services |
| 4. cater for | d) children or young of a particular parent or progenitor |
| 5. tuition fee | e) to go or pass from a higher to a lower place |
| 6. tantalise | f) happening once a year |
| 7. charge | g) a situation or place that causes anxiety or difficulties |
| 8. annual | h) to make or become doubled |
| 9. offspring | i) to show or promise something that someone really wants, but then not allow them to have it |
| | j) the money you pay for being taught |
| | k) to officially arrange to join a school, university, or course |

Ćwiczenia na licencji Creative Commons

Mgr Joanna Skowron