

University of Rzeszów

The University of Rzeszów, established by law on September 1, 2001, was formed through the merger of three institutions operating in Rzeszów: the Higher School of Pedagogy, the branch of Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin, and the Faculty of Economics of the Hugo Kołłątaj Agricultural University in Kraków. Today, the University of Rzeszów is the largest university in the Subcarpathian Voivodeship.
