

Beata Molo. PhD, Hab. Associate Professor. Associate Professor at Andrzej Frycz Modrzewski Krakow University. Head of the Chair in International Political Relations. Editor-in-Chief at „Krakowskie Studia Międzynarodowe” (‘Krakow International Studies’). Research interests focus on: German energy policy and security, climate protection in Germany, German foreign and security policy, EU energy and climate policy, Development of the climate change international regime, impact of the climate change on international security. Research internships: DAAD-Scholarship (for Academics and Senior Researchers), Otto Suhr Institute of the Free University Berlin, Germany, June 2011; DAAD-Scholarship (for Academics and Senior Researchers), Otto Suhr Institute of the Free University Berlin, Germany, June-July 2015; DAAD-Scholarship (for Academics and Senior Researchers), Institute for Local Government Studies, University of Potsdam, Germany, June-August 2021; Visiting Researcher, Institute for International Politics, Potsdam, Germany, April 2023,; Visiting Researcher, Institute for International Politics, Potsdam, Germany, May 2024.