

Filip Radoniewicz - doctor of legal sciences; served his legal adviser's apprenticeship ending with the passing of the professional examination; worked as an assistant judge; was an expert at the Legislative Department of Criminal Law of the Ministry of Justice and at the Academic Centre for Cyber Security Policy of ASzWoj. Graduate of postgraduate studies: 'European Union Law' at the Jagiellonian University, "Human Rights and Freedoms", co-organised by the Institute of Legal Sciences of the Polish Academy of Sciences and the Helsinki Foundation for Human Rights, and "Administration of Computer Networks" at the Lublin University of Technology; author or co-author of more than 80 publications, He participated in about 70 scientific conferences and seminars, at the vast majority of them he was a speaker. His scientific interests include issues in the field of broadly understood criminal law (in particular cybercrime), disciplinary proceedings, cyber security, 'new technology law' and human rights.