

Gabriel Székely, Mgr., PhD., Institute of Political Science (Faculty of Arts, University of Prešov) the function held: Assistant Professor. In his research, he focuses on topics related to the holocaust, non-democratic regimes, cross-border cooperation, public administration in Slovakia, elections and electoral systems in Slovakia. Currently, he is involved in a project APVV-21-0057 "Slovakia-Ukraine cross-border cooperation during and after the COVID-19 pandemic: factors and perspectives, impact on policies" funded by the Slovak Research and Development Agency. This research project follows a similar previous project APVV-15-0369" EU Association Agreement with Ukraine and cross-border cooperation between Slovakia and Ukraine: consequences and opportunities". In addition to these projects, he is actively involved and participated in international V4 projects funded by IVF. Research internships - I didn't accomplish any research internship except several Erasmus+ mobilities in Poland. Practical experience - cooperated as an interpreter to two observers from "Agora" NGO during the international election observation mission of parliamentary elections in Slovakia (2023). In his career, he is also well-trained and skilled in IT Networking and IT cybersecurity topics (Fortigate Network Security Professional - NSE4). He regularly provides expert comments on the political situation and political issues in opinion-forming media in Slovakia.