

Jan Marković, capacity-building officer, Podkarpackie Stowarzyszenie dla Aktywnych Rodzin. Jan Marković is an educational psychologist, trainer, and social activist who in 2015 co-founded PSAR, an NGO based in Rzeszów, which works in three main, intertwining fields: education and culture, human rights, and humanitarian aid. PSAR has been actively involved in supporting Ukrainian refugees through delivering mental-health and psychosocial support, educational and integrative projects for students and teachers, running an international youth club, publishing anti-discriminatory books etc. Jan Marković has been actively involved in developing all those programs. He has also been representing PSAR in inter-agency coordination meetings and discussions with PSAR partners, which include UN agencies, large international and Polish NGOs, local and regional authorities, and educational institutions.