

Joanna Jarczak. Specialist of the Investigation Team of the Criminal Department of the Municipal Police Headquarters in Zamość, she has many years' experience in the prevention and criminal division of the Police and as a trial attorney at the KRUS branch in Krasków. Graduate of legal studies and international relations at the Catholic University of Lublin. Doctoral student at Ignatianum University in Kraków. Scientific interests: internal security criminal law, philosophy and public administration. Participant of foreign and domestic scientific conferences and author and co-author of publications on security, ethics and philosophy.