

Doctor Krzysztof Białowas. Assistant professor at the Faculty of Political Science and Administration at the Department of Security Policy of Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz. In 2009, he completed a uniform master's degree at the Faculty of Pedagogy and Psychology of Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz and in 2015, a supplementary master's degree at the Faculty of Internal Security of the Police Academy in Szczytno. In 2022, based on his doctoral dissertation entitled: Police participation in counteracting "disturbing night rest" offenses, he obtained a doctoral degree in the field of social sciences in the discipline of security sciences. His scientific interests focus on the cooperation of society with institutions responsible for the internal security of the state. Research on the needs of police and special services, in the context of the possibility of citizens' participation in taking care of public, universal and constitutional security. Educational activities, the result of which will be the upbringing, teaching and education of a citizen co-responsible for the security of the state. In the years 1999-2024, a police officer. During his service for over 10 years, using the methods and techniques of operational work, he was involved in combating crime. Then, as a police officer on duty, he ensured the immediate response of officers to emerging threats to public safety. In addition, as an associate teacher of the Institute for Staff Development and Training of the Police Academy in Szczytno, he supported the implementation of the teaching process of young police officers. For several years, he has been a social probation officer at the 2nd Team of the Probationary Court Service for the execution of judgments in family and juvenile cases in Bydgoszcz. At the turn of 2019 and 2020, he participated as an educator in the work of the probation center in Bydgoszcz.