

Małgorzata Sikora-Gaca - Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz, Faculty of Political Science and Administration, Department of International Relations. Doctor of Humanities in the field of political science. Expert on development projects. In 2007-2020, manager and coordinator of projects co-financed by the European Union, implemented in the private and public sector. Specialist in accessibility. Manager of postgraduate studies „Accessibility management - accessibility specialist” implemented from 2020 at Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz. Author of contextual indicators relating to accessibility in development projects implemented by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in the Republic of Moldova. Auditor of accessibility of public and private space. Entrepreneurship specialist for local government units. Author of Local Entrepreneurship Development Programmes for selected territorial self-government units in Poland. Author and co-author of several dozen scientific publications, including: 4 monographs, 34 scientific articles, 30 chapters in monographs and 6 edited books.