

Małgorzata Waksmundzka-Szarek PhD assistant professor at the Institute of Political Studies of the University of Rzeszów. She holds a degree in Historical Studies and a Law degree of the UR. In 2024, she completed a PhD in Social Sciences, specializing in Safety Science at the War Studies University. From 2020 to 2024, she served as Deputy Director of the Department of Civil Affairs and Foreigners at the Podkarpackie Regional Office in Rzeszów. Prior to this, she was a consultant and press spokesperson for the Podkarpacie Voivodeship (2015–2020) and worked with the Rzeszów branch of the Institute of National Remembrance. Her professional and research accomplishments are rooted in Safety Science, with a focus on internal security, crisis management, and public relations, especially crisis communication. Additionally, she has served multiple terms as a member of the Polish Radio Rzeszów Programme Council and is a member of the fourth term of the Polish Affairs Council for matters outside the country's borders.