

Marcin Jastrzębski, Ph.D., Uniwersytet Kazimierza Wielkiego w Bydgoszczy. Assistant professor at the Faculty of Political Sciences and Administration Member of the Department of Political and Administrative Systems. Research interests: public international law, international and Polish human rights protection systems, political rights and freedoms, including right to free elections, cyberspace artificial intelligence, crisis of democracy, contemporary parties and party and political systems, with particular emphasis on electoral systems and their impact on the shaping of party systems and the position of political parties in individual countries. Scientific internships: numerous research internships within the Erasmus + program at universities in: Mugla (Türkiye), Tenerife (Spain), Granada (Spain). Practical experience: member and UKW representative in the Bydgoszcz Council for Human Rights and Equal Treatment at the Mayor of Bydgoszcz; member and later deputy chairman of the university electoral commission, previously its member; Member of the UKW Anti-Mobbing Commission.