

Mariusz Skiba. PhD, Retired Police Inspector, served in various positions, most recently as District Police Commander. Background: In the Jasło District Police Headquarters on positions in the prevention, criminal and support services (1996-2006). At the Regional Police Headquarters in Rzeszów in the positions of spokesperson for the Regional Police Commander, Plenipotentiary for the Protection of Human Rights (2006-2015) and Head of the Social Communication Department (2016-2023). At the District Police Headquarters in Brzozów, he held the positions of 1st Deputy District Police Chief (2015-2016) and District Police Chief in Brzozów (2023-2024). Postgraduate studies in quality management in administration at Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin and crisis management at the Police Academy in Szczytno. Associate teacher at the Police Training Centre in Legionowo from 2012 to 2014. Scientific interests: Problems of internal security, preventing and combating crime, history of Polish police formations, police law and pragmatics of police service.