

Marta Michalczuk-Wlizło - PhD, lawyer and political scientist, assistant professor in the Department of Political Systems and Human Rights at the Institute of Political Science and Administration of Maria Skłodowska-Curie University in Lublin. Member of the Polish Political Science Association. Recipient of multiple awards from the Rector of the University of Maria Skłodowska-Curie for scientific activities. Manager of scientific project no. NdS-II/SN/0353/2023/01, entitled: Temporal and permanent ambassadors - Polonia and Poles in the 21st century. Area: Southern Europe, funded by the Minister of Science and Higher Education. Contractor of completed of international research project no. PPN/BCZ/2019/1/00012, entitled: New Political Parties in the Party Systems of Poland and the Czech Republic, funded by the Polish National Agency for Academic Exchange and the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports of the Czech Republic and carried out by Poland and the Czech Republic. Participant of international and national scientific conferences. Member of scientific and organizational committees of scientific conferences. Author and co-author of monographs and scientific articles on constitutional law, institutions of political systems and state security. Many of them have been published in journals and publications indexed in the Scopus database. In recent years, her academic and research interests have focused on controversial legal and political issues in Poland , such as the right to legalize same-sex unions and the right to abortion.