

Michal Cirner (1983) works at the Institute of Political Science of the Faculty of Arts of the University of Prešov in Prešov. He studied public policy and public administration at the Faculty of Public Administration of the University of Pavel Jozef Šafárik in Košice and political science and political theory at the Faculty of Arts of the University of Prešov. Scientifically, research-wise and pedagogically, he focuses on issues of public administration, cross-border cooperation, and the party and political system of the Slovak Republic. He has been involved in numerous scientific research grant projects. So far, he has published more than a hundred professional and scientific works. He completed several research stays, internships and lecture stays abroad. As a political analyst, he regularly appears in Slovak and foreign media.