

Michal Lebduška is Research Fellow of Association for International Affairs (AMO) with focus on political, security and society in Ukraine, Poland and Belarus and Ukrainian-Polish relations. He graduated from International Area Studies and Balkan, Eurasian and Central European Studies at the Faculty of Social Sciences of Charles University in Prague. In 2023 he received PhD in history at Institute of History of University of Wrocław, where he conducted research on memory politics in Ukraine and formation of national identity of Ukrainians since 1991. In the past he took part in study programmes at Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv, Ivan Franko National University of Lviv and University College London. In 2018-2019 he collaborated with Czech Center Kyiv and in 2019-2020 he worked as a project coordinator in Belarus. He is a translator of literature from Polish to Czech.