

Petar Mišura, As the Head of Administrative Department for economy, entrepreneurship and development of the City of Šibenik works on tasks related on the simulation of development economy, especially crafts, small and medium-sized enterprises, arrangement operating conditions of economic entities (working hours and others), consumer protection, protection and rescue, auto taxi transport and jobs application and implementation of projects financed from EU and national funds. Manager of the SHARE project from the Interreg Europe program, project manager of the STEP UP project from cross-border cooperation Italy-Croatia, project manager of project Retailink and KAIROS from the URBACT III program. Project manager of the projects: "Center for new technologies and entrepreneurship Trokut", "Revitalization of the St. John`s fortress area", "Croatian coral center - Zlarin", Construction of the road - Podi, financed from the operating budget of the Competitiveness and Cohesion program. Work on application and implementation of the project "Integrated mobility in the area city of Šibenik". Work on the implementation of projects financed from national funds: landscaping of the Rezalište beach, landscaping of the beach in Raslina, construction bicycle paths. Work on creating a strategy for the urban area of the City of Šibenik. Performs a number of functions from city councilor, county councilor, president Tourist Board of the City of Šibenik, President of the Partnership Council of the Urban area of the City of Šibenik and a member of the supervisory board of the company.